Circle Square Cultural Center

OCALA, FLA. – Circle Square Cultural Center – opened by On Top of the World Communities in January 2007 – is the Ocala area’s largest indoor venue for concerts, theater, art exhibits, conventions and social functions.

Located in Circle Square Commons at the heart of the 12,972-acre On Top of the World master-planned community, the cultural center can accommodate up to 600 banquet guests and an audience of 830 in a theater-style setting.

The 16,000-square-foot facility – accented by a columned veranda spanning its facade – features a grand ballroom with a stage. The ballroom has state-of-the-art audio-visual equipment and a trained technical staff, and can be divided into three rooms for smaller groups

In addition, there is a 39-by-72-foot pre-function space, two dressing rooms (complete with restrooms), and a preparation area for catering. Meeting rooms can accommodate groups ranging from 80 to 500.

Of course, year-round programming is a major draw, and for the 2009-10
